For Other LPR's not based upon
Employment at the UI:

Employees can search and find their own attorneys if their green card will not be based upon an I-140 being signed by the University of Idaho (employment sponsored).

Employees may also choose to process their own or have another attorney process the I-485 (Adjustment of Status).

DISCLAIMER: These attorneys have been approved by the University of Idaho General Counsel's office as attorneys licensed to practice and who have immigration law experience. It is not guaranteed that your green card will be approved.
