

File a Report

There are several ways to report an issue to the Office of Civil Rights and Investigations. You can submit a form online, call, or email at any time. You can also submit a report in person during business hours.

uidaho.edu/vandalcare
ocri@uidaho.edu
208.885.4285

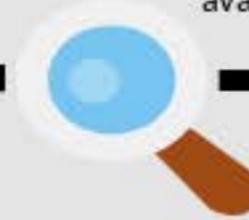

Report Review

The initial report will be reviewed by the Office of Civil Rights and Investigations. This office has a team of investigators specially trained to investigate reports of sexual violence, discrimination, harassment, and retaliation.

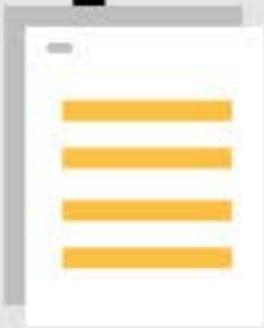

Initial Inquiry

The investigators may conduct initial interviews and collect information. This may include but is not limited to police reports, images or other evidence, when available.

Continuation of Investigation

-OR-

Notification of Outcome

Based on the initial inquiry, a determination may be made that the information presented does not constitute a policy violation or insufficient evidence exists to continue the investigation.

Notice Sent

Both parties, Complainant and Respondent, will receive a formal notice of investigation

Interview Witnesses

The Office of Civil Rights and Investigations will conduct interviews with potential witnesses and pertinent individuals.

Review of Information

The information collected will be reviewed by the Office of Civil Rights and Investigations. From all witnesses interviewed and documentation gathered, a report will be generated. Both parties will have an opportunity to review the draft report for final comment.

-OR-

Notification of Outcome & Referral to Student Conduct

Notification of Outcome & No Further Action