Western States Perpetuating Memorial Scholarship

One; $300.00 award to a deserving applicant. The WSA Aux. offers a memorial scholarship each year, which was created as a way to remember those Angus enthusiasts who have passed away while helping junior Angus members with upper division education expenses at the same time. When Angus enthusiasts pass on friends and family can make a donation to the Scholarship Fund in their name and the money generated by these donations grows the fund. This scholarship is open to Junior Angus members from: Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Oregon, California, Montana, Nevada, Utah and Washington. Applicants must be either members of the American Angus Association or National Junior Angus Association. Interested Junior Angus members from the Western States who are graduating from high school may submit a 250 word essay entitled "What My Black Angus Project Means To Me". Send your essay to the Scholarship Chair postmarked or emailed by April 15 of the year you are applying. Applicants must include their name, address and age in the top right hand corner of the page. The presentation of the scholarship will be made in April at the Western National Angus Futurity and Western Regional Junior Angus Show in Reno, Nevada. Winner need not be present to win.
